

Hub Site for IMN Conference

Santa Rosa, Ca

Contact: Rev. Dave Clements

Pacific Time Zone

Monday November 6th -Friday November 10th

Santa Rosa is an hour drive from San Francisco and Oakland Airports. If I know your flight schedules ahead of time, I will arrange for Airport Pickups and Drop off. Santa Rosa is a beautiful city in Sonoma County which is in the heart of the wineries. We will be gathering each morning at the Church in Santa Rosa.

Housing:

Airbnb Four 4 people staying in a 4-bedroom house night rate would be from $50 -85 per person

Hotels $ $130 -175 per night

Rev. Dave's Home – I can accommodate 3 people and would be no charge.

What we will do: Because the conference is all on EST we in the pacific are three hours behind. That leaves us some evenings and late afternoon to see the area we will do the following

Armstrong Grove- This is a grove of redwood trees that we will go and see and walk through

Cupula Winery – I am a member and so I get free wine tasting. This winery has all the movie items from Francis fore Cupula's movie directing, Peggy Sue got Married, The Godfather movies, Turner.

Alfred Hickocks home and the schoolhouse from his movie, "The Birds

Plan to come to this hub site. We will have fun and you will enjoy yourself. For booking and information please contact me: Rev. Dave Clements at: dscvisionjd@gmail.com or 216-333-8055

Title: Octavia Butler was Right

Description: Despite the yearning to return to an idealized past for some of those we serve, regathering has highlighted change that has occurred and that needs to occur in the two congregations I have served during this period. Transitional ministers are supposed to know something about helping congregations prepare live into change. But the stakes feel high and the yearning for solid ground intense. Is the promise of constant struggle and uncertain progress toward Beloved Community answer enough for our yearning hearts?
